ADULT CLASSES Questions & suggestions, contact Rev. Linda Zastovnik, Associate Pastor for Adult Faith Formation			9:30 A.M.
Adult Bible Study A class of (mostly) couples and singles over 55 that focuses on video and discussion of the Old and New Testament using the Efirid Bible Study Series and Adam Hamilton studies.			216/218
Bill Hight Class A class comprised of (mostly) senior adults that uses the International Bible Study series. This class attracts those looking for solid Bible study and is therefore becoming more intergenerational.			222
Faith in Action This small group of parents with children/teens focuses on a common interest in building Christian relationships, healthy marriages, and Christ-centered families. Studies are topical and typically run 6 - 8 weeks. The group also participates in mission projects and social activities.			213
Life Applications Class This group of individuals and couples generally over 45 years old focuses on incorporating DUMC's mission statement into our daily lives using community and fellowship, overseas and local missions, and Bible and spiritual study.			Congregational Care House
Navigators Adults ages 50+ utilize a wide range of materials, including books of the Bible, social issues, and any thing that deepens the members' Christian thought.			Davidson Town Hall
Logos Participants are generally 40+. Using formats such as video and/or sacred/contemporary/fictional writing, the curriculum varies around Biblical, topical, and personal growth studies. This is a discussion driven class for people looking to mature in their Christian discipleship.			209
Shalom This class addresses a broad range of topics, usually relating to social justice, interfaith dialogue, and emerging perspectives in Christian faith. Members volunteer to lead discussions that may be based on books, articles, videos, or guest speakers, and that reflect members' diverse belief and opinions (theological, political, and otherwise).			220
Young Families Parents with young children (elementary and younger). They have studied most of Adam Hamilton's topics. DVD-based curriculum with discussion.			215
