ADULT CLASSES All classes welcome walk-ins anytime! For suggestions regarding which class to visit, contact Rev. Linda Zastovnik, Pastor for Adult Faith Formation (lzastovnik@dauidsonumc.org or 704-892-8277)			9:30 A.M.
Adult Bible Study - A class of (mostly) couples and singles over 55 that focuses on video and discussion of the Old and New Testament using the Efirid Bible Study Series and Adam Hamilton video studies.			216/218
Bill Hight Class - A class of (mostly) senior adults that uses the International Bible Study series. This class is led by a teacher and attracts those looking for solid Bible study and applying Biblical principles and lessons to modern day life applications, therefore becoming more intergenerational.			222
Faith in Action - This small group of adults mostly born in the 60s and 70s has lively and thought provoking discussions on a variety of topics, from bible studies to current events to life application. Studies typically run 6 - 8 weeks. The group also participates in mission projects and social activities.			213
Life Applications Class (A Reconciling Community: rmnetwork.org) - This group of individuals and couples, generally ages 45+, focuses on incorporating DUMC's mission statement into our daily lives using community and fellowship, overseas and local missions, and Bible and spiritual study.			Congregational Care House
Navigators - Adults generally ages 45+ utilize a wide range of materials to generate and inform lively discussion and enrich our faith journey. Navigators take turns facilitating, welcome and encourage diverse perspectives, care for and support each other, and actively engage in outreach and other church activities.			Davidson Town Hall
Logos - Participants are generally 40+. Using formats such as video and/or sacred/contemporary/fictional writing, the curriculum varies around Biblical, topical, and personal growth studies. This is a discussion driven class for people looking to mature in their Christian discipleship.			209
Shalom (A Reconciling Community: rmnetwork.org) - This class addresses a broad range of topics, usually relating to social justice, interfaith dialogue, and emerging perspectives in Christian faith. Members volunteer to lead discussions that may be based on scripture, books, videos, or guest speakers, and that reflect members' diverse beliefs and opinions (theological, political, and otherwise).			220
