

Living From the Center Out

A one-year soul-shaping experience in community open to all who seek a Spirit-led life

Jesus showed us what it means to be fully alive, living in deep relationship with the Father, rooted in the gospel of the Kingdom and serving in the power of the Holy Spirit. We're invited into that kind of life - right here and now.

This one-year program includes 5 two-day and 1 one-day retreats for a total of 11 days, that are specifically designed for those who hunger for a holistic approach to the inner work that deepens their life with God as it equips and empowers them to love, live, and lead from their Divine center - wherever God may call, increasingly manifesting the character and power of Christ.

BEGINS | Saturday & Sunday, August 7-8, 2021

The Inner Life of a Fruitful Disciple

Sowing Seeds of Transformation

Starrette Farm Retreat, Statesville NC

Why The Sacred Invitation?

In a culture competing for the passion and direction of our hearts, minds, and souls, and believing that Spirit-led people are the future of the church, The Sacred Invitation offers a vision of vocation - to create a life of meaning and purpose, described by John Wesley, as doing all the good we can, in all the places we can, for all the people we can, for as long as we can.

How does the program work?

This distinct one-year curriculum focuses on three central ideas and is open to all who long to

- Deepen their relationship with God
- Respond to the Spirit's invitation to live out their sacred purpose
- Be part of a kindred community to nurture them in the process

At the deepest level, this work frees participants to identify and follow their God-given passion and fulfill their highest purpose.

Over the course of the year, students read books and articles, view life-changing documentaries, engage monthly in a variety of soul-forming activities, develop a spiritual community with a small group of co-learners, and experience teaching and formational activities built around time-tested concepts. A blend of intellect and experience, individual and community, social justice and contemplation, the program is deeply centered on Christ and rooted in the Gospel. The robust curriculum helps students become more open, receptive and responsive to God's transforming grace in their lives.

*Little by little the fern unfurls the parts
she once hid to the world (author unknown)*

As participants renew their love relationship with the triune God, discover, develop, and use their signature strengths, ground themselves in the vitality of a committed community to hold their journey, slowly over time, real growth takes place. Little by little participants, like the fern, unfurl the parts once hidden in loving service for the healing of the world.

Who should apply? If you are experiencing a void in your life that you can't fill with "stuff" from the secular world... If you are called to be a leader in your church but hesitate because you don't feel you have the right "tools"... If you are someone who wants to make a difference in the lives of those marginalized by society... If you are concerned about molding the spiritual lives of those you love... If you are looking to grow your relationship with Jesus in order to grow disciples for Jesus, then The Sacred Invitation journey might be for you.

What are Trust Circles for Group Spiritual Direction?

The purpose of a Trust Circle is to be companions and co-listeners for the voice of God in the story of each individual life. We help each other recognize and be more responsive to God’s movement and invitations. Trust Circles use the Group Spiritual Direction model (used internationally) created by Rose Mary Dougherty, S.S.N.D. through her work at Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation. In her book, Group Spiritual Direction: Community for Discernment, Sister Rose Mary writes of how her awareness for a “group” spiritual direction experience heightened through her reflection on John Wesley’s “class meetings,” the Society of Friends’ Clearness Committee, and Wesleyan scholar David Watson’s model of Covenant Discipleship groups.

LEADERSHIP TEAM

Frieda Farfour Brown is a licensed clinical psychologist with over 45 years of practice as a therapist, educator, supervisor, program director/manager, retreat leader, and writer. She has a PhD from the University of Louisville, a masters from UNC-Chapel Hill, a masters from Duke Divinity School, and has taught at four different universities. She established The Rainbow Connection, a church/mission-based preschool, which has served children for the last 40 years. Frieda has also helped create and nurture the Stephen Ministry at Davidson UMC, the Reimagining Health Collaborative at Duke Divinity School and the Kingstown initiative. Author of five books and numerous published articles, her participation in the first national training program for positive psychology sparked her interest in finding ways to help others find meaningful ways to use their God-given gifts in behalf of the greater community. She is a two-time graduate of School of the Spirit.

Roxanne Morgan is a founding member and elder at Warehouse242 (a Presbyterian congregation) where she leads contemplative spiritual formation classes. She has a God-given artistic bent that delights in fostering creativity, and helping others discover and live out sacred rhythms in their lives. She has served as a facilitator for the Trust Circle for Discernment ministry at Davidson UMC, is a graduate of School of the Spirit, and also serves with The Lydia Group LLC for School of the Spirit, The Inner Artist, Earth Our Original Monastery, and Into the Desert retreats, and is a Veriditas trained labyrinth facilitator. She is in the current cohort of Wayfaring Companions with the Neighboring Movement.

Tom Peckham earned his BS and MBA degrees in New England and served as I/T Director and CFO for a home health/hospice agency. Upon moving to North Carolina over 10 years ago, he joined Davidson UMC. He is a commissioned Stephen Minister and has served as a Stephen leader and trainer. He has taught several bible study programs, including all the Disciple curriculum, as well as many short studies. His desire for a deeper, personal relationship with God led him to School of the Spirit, and since then he has helped facilitate a number of spiritual formation classes as well as being a Trust Circle for Discernment facilitator at Davidson UMC. Tom is lead council co-chair for the Wesleyan Contemplative Order and a member of Renovaré's Fellowship of the Burning Heart pilot program.

Ann Starrette oversees the Office of Spiritual Formation | Direction, anchored at Davidson UMC. She is the founding director of School of the Spirit as well as The Lydia Group LLC retreat ministry begun in 1998. She earned her business degree from UNC-Charlotte, is a graduate of Renovaré Institute for Christian Spiritual Formation (two-year curriculum for Christlikeness), with further graduate studies at Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation and Richmond Graduate University. As a spiritual director, teacher, and retreat leader, Ann views her role as quietly planting inner seeds of freedom, growth and change toward wholeness. Ann (and husband Tom 1938-2019) are founders of Starrette Farm Retreat in Statesville.

Nancy Bellamy, Registrar: Nancy is an Ordained Chaplain, Lay Servant Leader with Clemmons United Methodist Church, Wesleyan Contemplative Order, and Starrette Farm Retreat. She is also a Certified Group Spiritual Director and a Spiritual Director in Training through Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation. Nancy loves people and connecting them to retreats, resources and relationships to support their journey toward wholeness in Christ.

The Rev. Dr. Jody Seymour, Senior Advisor: former Senior Pastor of Davidson United Methodist Church and co-creator and senior advisor of School of the Spirit.

Caroline Wood, Missional/Connectional Partner: Director of Missional Engagement and Connectional Ministries for the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.
